(Los Angeles, CA) Oct. 3, 2025—Get ready to fall down the rabbit hole, Los Angeles! The internationally acclaimed dance-illusionist company MOMIX is bringing their mesmerizing production, ALICE, a magical journey inspired by a classic, to The Soraya for one performance only on Saturday, Nov. 22 at 3 p.m.

Under the direction of Moses Pendleton, MOMIX is celebrated for its exceptional inventiveness and breathtaking physical beauty. For over 40 years, MOMIX has captivated audiences worldwide by transforming the human body with clever use of light, shadow, and props.

Their newest creation, Alice, draws inspiration from Lewis Carroll's beloved classic, Alice in Wonderland. Prepare to be enchanted as MOMIX seamlessly blends illusion, acrobatics, magic, and whimsy to bring Alice's fantastical journey to life. Watch as dancers embody Alice's changing size, extending their forms with props, ropes, and the help of other performers.

"I don't intend to retell the whole Alice story, but to use it as a taking off point for invention," Pendleton said about his artistic approach. "I'm curious to see what will emerge, and I'm getting curiouiser and curiouiser the more I learn about Lewis Carroll, who like me was a devoted photographer."

Join MOMIX on a mind-bending adventure where you'll encounter iconic characters such as the undulating Caterpillar, a lobster quadrille, frenzied White Rabbits, and a mad Queen of Hearts, all presented with MOMIX's signature visual splendor and startling creative movement. This production promises a world where nothing is as it seems! MOMIX's Alice is presented in partnership with Selby/Artists Management.
